

About the role

The position of Music Teacher offers an exciting opportunity for a talented individual. The successful applicant, whether an NQT or experienced teacher, should bring enthusiasm and passion to inspire students across Year 7 to Year 13.

The Music Department is currently staffed by a full-time Director of Music, a part-time teacher of Music and a part-time teacher of Music Technology. There are also 10 peripatetic members of staff who work part-time to teach instrumental and singing lessons. The department is well-equipped with a purpose-built, galleried Recital Room with a baby grand piano, a Music Technology suite with 13 iMacs, a dedicated Recording Studio running Logic Pro X and a Practical/Performance Room with a class set of keyboards, djembes and samba drums. The department also contains a selection of practice rooms, including a dedicated Drum Room. Many concert performances take place in the school's John Crook Theatre.

Music is compulsory for all Key Stage 3 students and is offered as GCSE and A Level options following the Edexcel specifications. We also offer Music Technology as an A level option, again following the Edexcel specification. In 2023, Music GCSE achieved 100% 9-5 and Music A Level achieved 100% A*-A. The department participates heavily in the school's co-curricular programme, with Orchestra, Year 7 Choir, Chamber Choir, Jazz Band, String Ensemble, Percussion Ensemble, Brass Ensemble, Piano Ensembles, Barbershop, Composition Club, Music Theory Club, Music Technology Club, and multiple Rock Bands all on offer for the students.

Halliford School supports a Music Scholarship scheme and offers an extensive concert program with the Inter-House Singing Competition, a Winter Concert, Carol Singing, Parent and School Carol Services, a Battle of the Bands, a Young Musician Competition, a Summer Concert, an Easter Service, multiple lunchtime concerts and a biennial School Musical in partnership with the Drama Department. The Music Department also offers trips to recording studios, classical concerts, West End musicals and an international trip for the Orchestra and Chamber Choir.

Job description

Salary

The post holder will be paid on the appropriate point of the Halliford School Teacher's Pay Scale. We have our own pay scale, which is significantly competitive and well above the maintained sector.

Lines of Responsibility

The Teacher of Music is directly responsible to the Director of Music on curriculum matters and the relevant Head of House for pastoral issues.

Key Responsibilities

The basic duties of a teacher are outlined in the Staff Handbook and include the role of form tutor, although currently part-time staff are not form tutors. All members of staff are expected to contribute to the rich co-curricular life of the school.

Teaching & Learning

- Teach Music as required from Key Stage 3 to A Level
- Plan high-quality lessons in accordance with the departmental Scheme of Work
- Take full account of students' prior levels of attainment and use this along with available academic data to inform planning
- Maintain good discipline by following the school's policies and procedures
- Establish a purposeful working atmosphere during all lessons and activities
- Set appropriate and challenging goals for all students
- Identify and work appropriately with those students with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities, Potential High Achievers, and those with English as an Additional Language
- Organise and deliver Music clinics / drop-in sessions, as required
- Communicate effectively with parents
- Set work when required for absent students and e-mail to parents

Assessment, Recording and Reporting

- Keep accurate and regular records of students' work
- Mark and return work set, including homework in line with the departmental and whole school policies and within an agreed and reasonable time
- Carry out assessment programmes as agreed by the Head of Department and Deputy Head Academic
- Complete detailed full written reports and grade cards in line with the whole school reporting schedule
- Attend parents' evening as required and keep parents regularly updated about their child's performance and targets

Co-Curricular & Whole School

- Take a full and active role in the co-curricular programme on offer at the School
- Prepare suitable classroom and departmental display material
- Organise and participate in educational visits, departmental events, School Open Days and Entrance Examination Day
- Participate once a week as a member of the staff duty team

Pastoral

- Undertake the duties of a form tutor within one of the school houses
- Develop positive working relationships and lines of communication with the members of your tutor group and their parents / guardians
- Deliver the school's PSHE programme to your tutor group with the support of the Head of PSHE
- Ensure you deliver the very highest levels of Safeguarding and Child protection at all times

Performance Management and Professional Development

The teacher will be part of the School's Performance Management Scheme. They will be assigned an appraiser (usually the Head of Department) who will set agreed targets and monitor professional development. In addition, all new members of staff are provided with a comprehensive programme of induction in the first year with a full review in the summer term.

Conditions of Employment

The post-holder must uphold the School's policy in respect of all matters related to Safeguarding and Child Protection. The above responsibilities are subject to the general duties and responsibilities in the written statement of conditions of employment (The Contract of Employment). The post-holder is required to support and encourage the School's ethos and its objectives, policies and procedures as agreed by the Headmaster and Governing Body. The post-holder would also be expected to carry out any other duties that are reasonably assigned by the Headmaster.

The Job Description allocates duties and responsibilities but does not direct the particular amount of time to be spent on carrying them out and this must not be construed. This Job Description is not necessarily a comprehensive definition of the post. It will be reviewed periodically and may be subject to modification at any time after consultation with the post-holder.
